

Our Menus

Our menus are created to suit your individual requirements.

Whether you wish us to simply supply you with food ready prepared for you to serve in the comfort of your own home, or for us to provide you with professional staff to assist in the smooth running of your celebration from beginning to end, we would be delighted to chat about your requirements.

Our suggested menus are simply to provide you with “food for thought”. All of our menus are bespoke, so please use these 'tasters' as an initial guide. Nothing is cast in stone - our aim is to be as flexible as possible, within reason!
